

I feel that it is very important to consider how this documentary which is being called "news" is misleading and how this is in keeping with campaign finance law. Rather it seems to me be a violation. Congratulations to the senators and others who are speaking out. Thank you for your consideration. Elaine